Trusted Financial Expertise
for Legal Professionals

Forrester Boyd
CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

Independent, clear and credible

When financial matters sit at the centre of a legal dispute, the quality of the advice behind the case matters.

At Forrester Boyd, we work with solicitors and legal professionals to provide independent financial expertise that is clear, credible, and commercially grounded.

From shareholder disputes and matrimonial proceedings to commercial claims and business valuations, we help bring clarity to complex situations with balanced advice and professional insight.

Our role is to provide objective financial analysis that stands up to scrutiny while supporting legal teams with a responsive and practical approach throughout the process.

“ Trusted by legal professionals to provide financial clarity, offering an independent opinion and assuring trusted support. ”

Legal matters involving financial complexity require more than technical accuracy alone. They require advisers who understand the wider commercial picture, communicate clearly, and appreciate the importance of deadlines, detail, and professionalism.

Forrester Boyd has supported businesses and individuals across Lincolnshire and Yorkshire for decades. That experience allows us to approach disputes with both technical expertise and real commercial understanding.

Whether acting as a Single Joint Expert or supporting one party within proceedings, we provide independent reports and financial evidence with clarity and confidence.

Our expertise includes:

Loss Quantification

Providing detailed financial analysis relating to commercial disputes, professional negligence matters, insurance claims, and business interruption cases.

Business Valuations

Delivering independent and defensible valuations for shareholder disputes, divorce proceedings, partnership matters, and ownership disagreements.

Capital Gains Tax Reporting

Working alongside legal advisers to help clients understand potential tax exposure linked to asset disposals and settlements.

Why Forrester Boyd?

- + Independent and objective in approach.
- + Commercially aware and technically strong.
- + Clear communication throughout the process.
- + Responsive support when timing matters.
- + Dedicated support team.
- + Reports prepared in accordance with Civil and Criminal Procedure Rules.
- + Most importantly, we understand that behind every instruction is a client looking for certainty during what is often a difficult and sensitive situation.

Our aim is simple: to provide financial clarity that helps legal professionals move cases forward with confidence.
